

Those contemptible cowards who tarred and feathered a Kansas school-marm on the strength of gossip they had heard, deserve more punishment than they are likely to get in a court of law.

Eight million people are on the verge of starvation as a result of crop failure in twenty districts in Russia.

Now, to hear Willie Hearst tell it, he has launched the new republic of China. It's just one step more in what he tells.

Dr. Osler announces an article on the American voice. Wonder what's his age limit for the baseball fan's vocal cords.

A loaf of bread 12 feet long, 2 feet wide and weighing 250 lbs., is the latest. It would make 12,500 sandwiches and would keep a man and his wife in bread for a year, if it could be kept fresh.

Missionary life in China supplies plenty of excitement. Just now they are on the run for the coast.

BLAME 'EM!

"What defects (in the American bench) there are, are due not to the weakness of judges, but to the weakness of the people". (Taft at Chicago.)

Now come, how do you like that statement? When judges favor special privilege and stamp upon popular nights, it is not the fault of the judges but the people.

When there is one law for the rich and another for the poor, as in the case of the N. Y. Federal Judge who fined an imposter (Hugo Rosenberg), $25,000, although he had defrauded the government of $1,400,000 (profitable business that, isn't it?) and a small fellow (D. Pollas), who had gouged the government only $2,500 was sentenced to 3 months in jail, why the people are to blame.

Come to think of it, maybe Taft it right. It does look as if the people had been weak in that they did not long ago recall such judges.
